Attached is the Insurance retail replacement value appraisals performed for your jewelry. The appraisal is accepted by all insurance companies in America and has no expiration date.

What is a Retail Replacement Value?

Appraisals for determining the approximate Replacement Value are used for use in scheduling insurance, providing a comparison for purchase, and for liability insurance for damaged items.

The Independent Appraiser:

An Independent Certified Gemologist Appraiser has demonstrated their knowledge and experience in the area of gemology, jewelry and valuation theory. They are considered the authority on the appraisal of gems, diamonds, and jewelry. Independent Certified Gemologist Appraisers are qualified to provide insurance appraisals as well as more challenging appraisal assignments such as estate appraisals, and appraisals for use in equitable distribution, liquidation, divorce and charitable contributions.

Keep the original appraisal in a secure place. Use photo copies for your needs.

Please contact us if you have any question concerning this Insurance Appraisal.

We will also be happy to assist you with any issues concerning gems, jewelry appraisals and evaluations.

Sincerely

Paul Hargrave

LIMITING CONDITIONS

This appraisal as is herewith attached is subject to the following Limiting Conditions:

1. The appraiser has personally made a physical inspection of the object(s) specified in this report.
2. Unless otherwise noted, items are in good condition and do not require any repairs at this time.
3. The values and descriptions listed, and all other statements are true and correct to the best of the appraiser's knowledge and belief based on present day market values and accepted appraisal procedures.
4. Because mountings prohibit full and accurate observation of gem quality and weight, it must be understood that all data pertaining to mounted gems can be considered only as approximate.
5. Because jewelry appraisal and evaluation is not a pure science but includes a subjective professional assessment, estimates of value and quality may vary from one appraiser to another with such variances not necessarily constituting error on the part of the appraiser. Due to the subjective nature of appraisals and evaluation, statements and data contained herein cannot be construed as a guarantee or warranty.
6. Appraisal fees are based on time and are not contingent on value or outcome.
7. The appraisal is not an offer to buy the appraised items at this or any price.
8. Unless otherwise noted, Sales taxes are not included in the appraised values.
9. The appraiser does not have, and does not expect to have, a financial interest in any of the appraised items unless specifically noted in the comments section of the appraisal document.
10. No other person provided significant professional assistance to the appraiser who signed the appraisal report unless specifically identified in the comments section of the appraisal document.
11. The date of the appraisal and the date of the report are the same, unless noted otherwise in the comments section of the appraisal document.
12. Because appraisal technology and procedures are continually improving, it is possible that an appraiser may examine this item differently and come to different conclusions at a later date.
13. Possession of this report does not provide title to the items appraised. Appraisal values are based on the appraiser's assumption of whole ownership. The appraisal process does not discover liens, encumbrances, or fractional interests.
14. Possession of this report, any portion of this report, or any copy thereof does not include the right of publication without the appraiser's written consent. Public use of the appraiser's name, or the name of the appraisal firm or jewelry store, or of information contained in the appraisal, is not granted. Use of this report in advertising is not permitted.
15. Testimony, depositions, hearings or court attendance are not required by reason of rendering this report. Arrangements for these and similar matters must be made in advance and in accordance with prevailing hourly rates.
16. The information in this report is confidential.
17. No changes may be made to this report by anyone other than the appraiser who signed it. The appraiser is not responsible for unauthorized alterations.
18. The reported analyses, opinions and conclusions are limited only by the above listed assumptions and limiting conditions.

I certify that I have conducted a physical examination of the item listed in this report. The examination and analysis of the subject was performed by TGS Inc.
